Dear Judge Guilford,

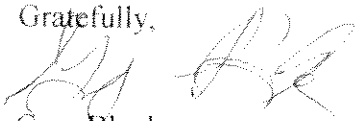

My Name is Greg Block; I have been a law enforcement Firearms Instructor based in Orange County since 1983. In 1987, I had the pleasure to meet a Sergeant out of the North Orange County Marshal's Operation Center that answered to the name of "Skip". Skip's real name was Mike Corona. I remember being introduced to him even today because of his professional manner and upbeat attitude. I have known Mike Corona for over 20 years.

As a self employed entrepreneur I'm very conscientious of billable hours; no work equals no pay check. My respect for Mike Corona is why I volunteered my time over and over again. I began by offering my time and expertise at the Professional Standards Division to help develop the CCW program for Mike. I then continued offering my time as a Professional Services Responder (PSR), providing free firearms training for Orange County Sheriff's Department Reserves and PSR's. I got involved when Mike wanted to increase the Sheriff's Advisory Council. I gave back to my county solely due to the respect I had for what Mike Corona was doing for Orange County.

Mike made the Orange County a safer place. He assisted whenever and wherever he could to help the citizens. His charisma touched us all. Hundreds of people got involved and volunteered in programs such as the PSR's because of him. Not a single one of the volunteers are heavy hitters in the business or political world. We volunteers are just regular working folk that wanted to give back to a Sheriff who did so much for Orange County.

Mike gave his time and heart to the County of Orange making it a better place. He was recognized nationally for developing a volunteer program (the PSR Program) which got the citizens to give back to their county as well as saving thousands of taxpayer dollars. Mike Corona is a good man with a big heart. As such, I feel probation would be the proper sentence for him. If I can be of any assistance to further this decision, please let me know.

Gratefully,

Greg Block
